*The programmes are professional in nature, they require approval from the concerned Statutory Councils. Any other professional programme also requires approval from the concerned Statutory Councils. It will be the sole responsibility of your Institution to seek prior approval from the concerned statutory Councils/regulatory bodies, wherever required.

A. The recognition to above programmes is subject to the compliance of the following by the University.

- The University shall adopt curriculum and course materials of IGNOU or other DEC recognized ODL institutions for various programmes till such time it develops its proper SLM, with extensive training to all concerned. The University will follow all the structures and process of the various programmes including that of management programme of IGNOU including Credit values and evaluation procedures.
- As the University is primarily for female learners, they must be given priority and encouragement by taking special measures if necessary.
- The University should constitute an advisory board for the Directorate of Distance Education with outside experts in ODL system, and a representative of DEC as its member to guide the activities of the Directorate.
- The University should follow the self learning methodology in updating, preparation of the course ware and should improve its existing course ware by involving more ODL experts on their programme expert committees representing subject related academicians from outside the university, from Rajasthan and other states, for preparing syllabi and developing, updating and revising the course materials as per ODL pedagogy.
- All Faculty and non teaching staff of Directorate of Distance Education should be Permanent and full time in nature.
- The University should conduct intensive training programmes for the faculty and counselors for development of Self Learning Materials and other pedagogy with the support of STRIDE, IGNOU, and other schools of IGNOU and/or other bodies of similar caliber as per need, in consultation with the DEC. The University should revise its study materials on completion of this training programme.
- The credit page should be included in the SLM at appropriate place by stating the names of experts who were involved in the material design, writing, editing team etc.
- Involvement of external experts for setting paper, moderation and evaluation for term end examinations.
- Additional recent references/ further readings should be included in the course materials

- x. The University should implement the Sixth Pay Commissions recommendations of the UGC and focus on the faculty development programmes and ensure that all faculty members should be either NET/SLET passed or Ph.D in relevant subjects.

B. The University/Institution may note that:

1. The Institution will offer only such programmes through distance mode which are offered by the Institution through regular face-to-face mode and approved by the Distance Education Council as mentioned in this letter. The Institution will not offer any other programme through distance mode other than those approved by the Distance Education Council.
2. Programmes, if any, in the areas of Health, Nursing, Dentistry, Management, Computers and allied areas may be offered with the approval of the statutory councils/regulatory bodies, wherever required.
3. It will be the responsibility of the Institution to follow the norms prescribed by the regulatory bodies, and seek their approval, wherever required.
4. The nomenclature of the programmes should be strictly as prescribed by the UGC/AICTE and approved by the Distance Education Council.
5. The eligibility conditions and duration of programmes will be as per the DEC norms and for professional and technical programmes as per the norms laid down by the AICTE. No admission to MBA, PGDBM and MCA programmes can be done without ensuring that that the student has secured a valid score in the entrance test examination for this purpose.
6. The Institution shall limit admission to maximum 60 seats per programme per Study Centre for Management, Computer & IT, and Allied Health Sciences programmes, if any. For laboratory/Practical work, the institution can have a maximum of 30 students in a batch subject to maximum 60 students per Study Centre. The Study Centre be owned by the University and should be opened with the approval of EC/BOM of the University concerned.
7. The Institution should have at least one full time faculty member exclusively for coordinating each programme at the Headquarters.
8. The territorial jurisdiction for offering programmes through distance mode will be as per the decision taken in the 35th Meeting of the Distance Education Council. In its 35th meeting the Council noted that distance education and online education cannot have the Territorial Jurisdiction. In case of Central Universities and the State Universities, the Territorial Jurisdiction will be as per their Acts and Statutes for offering programmes through distance mode. The Territorial Jurisdiction in case of Deemed Universities will be as per UGC, which mandates the prior approval of the UGC for opening Centres / off Campus Centres outside the Headquarters. The Territorial Jurisdiction in case of Private Institutions (other than Universities) will be as decided by the Joint Committee, which has decided that the territorial jurisdiction for the institutions (both private as well as Govt funded) shall be the Headquarters, and in no case outside the State.
9. The territorial jurisdiction for offering programmes through distance mode by your institution shall be the head quarters of the University as per the notification of the UGC and as per DEC norms.
10. The Distance Education Council prohibits franchising of Study Centres. Thus, your Institution will not franchise any Study Centre in any part of the country or abroad.
11. The Institution's management of the distance education programmes will be open for review and inspection from time to time by DEC to provide inputs for further improvement or as deemed necessary. The academic norms of the programmes shall be under monitoring and regulation by the concerned regulatory authorities.
12. For Management and Computer Science programmes, the Institution should also note that:
  - The programme should have a mandatory internship of six months;
  - Institute/University concerned should seek accreditation from National Board of Accreditation as per prevailing rules;
  - Institute/University concerned should have concerned Department and the conventional universities should have on campus programme on offer;
  - Institute/University concerned should not have advertised for the programmes before receiving the approval letter;
