JAYOTI SANGH

(A STUDENT VOICE)

Establishment Year - 2008

A Socio-Cultural Platform for Community Welfare and Upliftment

About Jayoti Sangh

The SANGH acts as a representative body for the students by the students.

It reflects the aspirations and demands of the student community of JWVU. The Sangh acts as a bridge between the University Management and the general student. Jayoti Sangh is a volunteer set up of students which organize various on and off campus socio-cultural events and support i.e. Medical, Social responsibility, sports and activities undertaken various projects for community welfare.

We strongly oppose any discrimination based on caste, creed, sex and religion. We do believe that a democratic approach to all issues is central to the arduous task of community building.

Objective

It is our firm belief that an atmosphere of peace, amity and academics must prevail in the campus. The objective of Jayoti Sangh program is geared to enable and inspire students to be self-dependent and also contribute towards welfare of the entire Student community.
